Give Him A Lift!

Give him a lift : Don't kneel in prayer, Nor moralize with his despair ; The man is down, and his great need

Is ready help-not prayer and creed. Tis time when the wounds are washed and healed. That the inward motives be revealed; But now, whate'er the spirit be,

Mere words are but a mockery. One grain of aid just now is more To him than tomes of saintly lore;

Pray, if you must, in your full heart, But give him a lift-give him a start The world is full of good advice,

Of prayer, and praise, and preaching nice : But the generous souls who aid mankind

Are scarce as gold, and hard to find. Give like a Christian-speak in deeds ; A noble life's the best of creeds;

And he shall wear a royal crown Who gives 'em a lift when they are down -Home Journal.

VARIETY.

Paterfamilias, counting the cash, agrees with the almanac makers that these days are the shortest of the year. A farmer on the fever and ague marshes of

New Jersey has named his daughter " Malaria." She will doubtless be great shakes of a girl. Prof. Swing says: "The rock of poverty looks cold and hard, but within is a jasper. Is, eh? Won't he please smash that rock and forward the jasper? Mr. Sutton, a well-known professional base ball player, was converted at a revival meeting in Philadelphia not long ago. He rose to address the meeting, and said: "I have made the first base, and by the help of the Lord will make a home run.

"The temperance cause is moving on," said | nu Streets. a sprightly reformer at a recent meeting. "Glad of it," growled a red-nosed person on one of the back seats; "It's been hangin' around here long enough."

A young girl put her name and address in a bottle and threw the bottle in the Ohio river. After many days a young man found the same and a marriage will result. And now the Paducah News fears that the navigation of the river will be impeded directly.

MUST BE KEPT BUSY .- " Mamma," asked a little lady up town, "does God write all the foreign breads made to order. wicked things people do, in a big book?" "Yes, dear," said the mamma, "The Bible says He keeps account of them all." "Then, mamma," continued the little one, thoughtfully, "how very busy God must be !"

Eastern paper: "It is a very unclerical practice, and I must say, a very uncleanly one. Tobacco! Why, sir, even a hog would not smoke it " "Doctor C-," replied to his amused listener, "do you smoke tobacco?" "I? No. sir!" he answered, gruffly, with great indigna-"Then, pray, who is the hog, you or

The Baptists and Methodists of Philadelphia are going to try the efficacy of prayer on hard times, the 10th of January; but the irreverent New York Herald meets them with this conundrum: " Congress again reassembles on that day, and what is the use of praying while it is in session?" More use than at any other time to watch and pray-particularly watch.

Reform has reach Iowa. The Hawkeye says: Twenty of the best young men in Burlington have banded themselves together and bound themselves firmly by a terrible oath, never to pay more than $7 for a pin-cushion made of curtain calico and stuffed with bran, at any time this wieter, no matter what missionary society manufactures the pin-cushion.

Boston Globe :- " The funniest thing at the Atlantic dinner was to see the way in which Emerson held his eigar. He poised it gently between his thumb and forefinger, and sipped it fastidiously, with an air of the greatest respect. 'Mark Twain' smoked a pipe after he had got off his speech."

"When a Boston girl accepts a lover she says, 'Bean's it's you, yes.'"-New York Herald. "When a New York girl accepts a lover she says, 'Cents it's you, yes.' "-Boston

Beau-hoo-ty-fool show-her "Do those bells sound an alarm of fire?" said a stranger the other Sunday, as the church bells were calling together the worshippers. "Yes," was the reply, "but the fire is in the

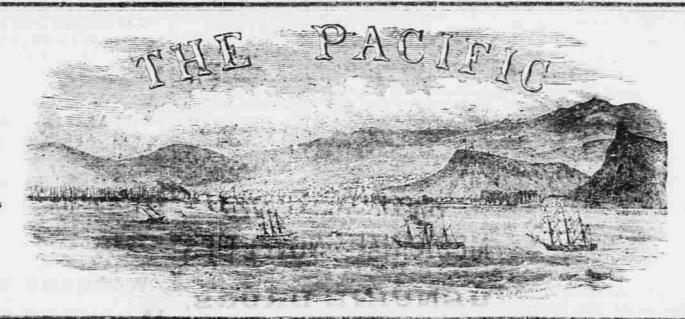

The cable sadly announced, the other day, The Pope has had another chill." And now the patent inside papers of Iowa joyfully declare that " the Pope has another child." The Holy Father is justified in all his anathemas against

A bickering pair of Quakers were heard in high controversy, the husband exclaiming, " I am determined to have one quiet week with thee !" " But how wilt thou get it?" said the taunting spouse, in that reiteration which married ladies so provokingly indulge in. "I will keep thee a week after thou art dead," was the Quaker's rejoinder.

Two Epitapus-In Chatham churchyard by a husband on the death of his wives: On the first -" The Lord gave and the Lord bath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord." On the second-" I called upon the Lord and He heard me and delivered me from all my

A Kentucky preacher rose to speak, and opened the Bible. The first verse that met his eye happpened to be "The voice of the turtle shall be heard in the land." "Brethering," said he, "at first sight one would think there was not much in that tex; but on a little consideration, you will see there's a great deal in it. Now, you all know what a turtle is? If you've been along by a pond, you have seen them on a log sunning themselves. Now it is 23 Merchant Street, 2 doors from Dr. Stangenwald's. said, 'The voice of the turtle shall be heard in the land.' But the turtle hasn't any voice, that the land ever heard; so it must be the noise he made in plunging off the log into the water. Hence, we conclude that immersion must become universal.

Apropos of the enormous thefts of timber from government lands, to which Secretary Schurz makes reference in his report, an Iowa Naalehu Plantation, Hawaiii paper tells this little story: " We are reminded of a Methodist conference which was held at an early day in this state. A minister who had just come into the country and who was the possessor of a stovepipe hat and a broad-cloth coat got the floor and said: 'I am against stealing in every shape, and therefore move the adoption of the following resolution: Resolved, That in the opinion of this conference it is just as sinful to steal government timber as any other kind of property.' A minister MPORTER AND DEALER INGENERAL who was dressed in a homespun suit arose in great haste and said: 'It is evident that the brother who introduced this resolution is a newcomer and does not bow the wants and necessities of this commun y. I move that the resolution be laid on the table, and on the table it went by a large m jority."
